Jennifer Darger to Chair Perrin Conferences’
4th Annual New York Asbestos Litigation Conference

Darger Errante Yavitz & Blau colleague, Judith Yavitz, to moderate panel discussion on The Judicial Perspective

New York – November 6, 2014 – Darger Errante Yavitz & Blau LLP today announced two of its nationally recognized partners will lead discussion at Perrin Conferences’ 4th Annual Litigating Asbestos Cases in Today’s Environment, Featuring Insights from the Bench: The Judicial Perspective, scheduled for December 2, 2014, at the New York Athletic Club, 180 Central Park South, in Manhattan.

Jennifer W. Darger, a founding partner of the firm will chair the conference and deliver opening remarks. Jennifer’s practice includes the defense of complex product liability and toxic tort litigation including asbestos, pharmaceutical, and mold cases. For more than 25 years, Jennifer has represented product manufacturers, equipment manufacturers, distributors, fiber suppliers, contractors, and premises owners as national trial and coordinating counsel, and as local counsel.

Judith A. Yavitz, also a founding partner, will moderate a panel discussion on The Judicial Perspective. She has been involved in asbestos litigation for more than 25 years as national, regional and local counsel for several Fortune 500 companies. Her extensive experience encompasses complex product liability, mass tort and class action litigation involving asbestos, pharmaceuticals, mold, petroleum products, and machinery.

Each year, Perrin Conferences’ New York event has grown in attendance and stature, drawing more than 200 professionals in 2013. Joining Ms. Darger and Ms. Yavitz as 2014 featured speakers will be eight New York judges, the NYCAL Special Master, and many other nationally recognized plaintiff and defense attorneys representing all perspectives in toxic tort litigation.

In addition to learning, information sharing, and networking opportunities, the conference will provide Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Credit for qualified attendees.
